

SZS (3376.TW): Foldable devices in expansion with new capacity; new devices in 2H26 as key driver; Buy

SZS Feb revenues were -22% YoY/ -22% MoM to NT$676m post MoM increase in Jan, and we attribute it to fewer working days under Chinese New Year, major client's product cycle, and modest end market demand under rising memory costs. We expect sequential MoM growth ahead at 27%/ 5%/ 10% in Mar/ Apr/ May on better seasonality and demand recovery. Overall, we see stronger seasonality in 2H, driven by brand customers' new product launches to encourage user replacement and product expansion. The company expects to complete the new sites in Suzhou this year, and we are positive on company's growing capacity and R&D capability to benefit from the foldable devices ahead. Maintain Buy. Earnings revision: We factor in SZS 4Q25 result, keep 2026E earnings largely unchanged, revise up 2027 earnings by 1%, and introduce 2028E estimates. We raise 2027 earnings mainly on higher revenues of the company's capacity expansion for foldable devices. 4Q25 Rev/ NI miss: The company's 4Q25 revenues were down 29% YoY, or -12% MoM to NT$2.3bn due to (1) the major customer's headset product (launched in late 2020) comes to an end of life cycle, (2) slow market demand on the consumer electronics under the rising memory costs. 4Q25 GM was down to 11.5% (vs. 13.6% in 3Q25), and management attributes it to the higher spending on the new projects, which takes time to see revenues contribution, along with rising competition on consumer electronics hinges under the slow demand. The company continues to improve the manufacturing process for higher yield rate and enhance the operational efficiency.

Price Target Risks and Methodology: SZS

Valuation: We use a near-term P/E vs. EPS growth correlation to derive our target price for SZS, consistent with our Taiwan Technology coverage. Our target 2027E P/E multiple of 21x for SZS is based on the sector correlation of 2027E P/E vs. 2027-28E earnings growth. We thus derive our 12-month target price at NT$332. We are Buy rated. Key risks: Weaker-than-expected headset hinges demand; slower-than-expected foldable phone penetration; potential competition from more suppliers; soft market demand.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DAFCF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Quantum is Goldman Sachs' proprietary database providing access to detailed financial statement histories, forecasts and ratios. It can be used for in-depth analysis of a single company, or to make comparisons between companies in different sectors and markets.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.
